Note:
Above pictures are of different locations, some of them are even of projects in progress as on Dec. 18th, 2009, we cannot reveal the location destinations, unless the party has signed a Letter of Intent with us along with Non Disclosure Confidentiality and Non Circumvention agreement.

In fact we would appreciate your readiness to visit the sites to see the actual systems in progress and to have the first hand reviews of the end users.

Any questions, please let us know on the numbers and e mails stated on the letter head herein.
